

G. W. U. QUINT IN HARD LUCK THIS SEASON

Team Has Been Successful Only From Financial Standpoint.

The basketball season at George Washington University ended last Saturday, when the Hatchette five lost to the University of Virginia at Charlottesville. It was understood to be the intention of the management to continue the season to the middle of March, but the intervening circumstances rendered this impossible, and makes necessary the cancellation of last week's game with Gettysburg College.

The team during the season has been under the direction of M. S. Biddle, Law '06, and Assistant Manager Muhlenberg, College, '11. The record of the team of 1907-'08 is a very poor one when contrasted with that of last season's crack five, which was easily the strongest team in this section, with victories over Virginia, Georgetown, and other college teams.

Not a Single Victory.

The schedule, which was much harder than that of the preceding season, fails to disclose a single victory. The first game was played with Yale in December, resulting in a defeat by a score of 19 to 13.

Immediately after this came the action of the A. A. U. in disbanding the team, followed by the investigation of the University Athletic Council, which resulted in the throwing out of two promising men and the suspension of Manager Biddle for a short period. Since that time games have been lost to Virginia, the Western University of Pennsylvania, Ann Arbor, Georgetown, Tyne, and York Y. M. C. A.

Team Handicapped.

The team has been greatly handicapped throughout the season by injuries to Captain Johnson, who has played in only a small part of the scheduled games, and by the inability of several other promising men, to continue with the team during the season. Covell, Newhouse, and Johnson, of last year's five, played at different times, and the team, while Marshall, Twyford, Rehner, Duffey, Rutherford, and Biddle were the new players.

It is likely that all of these men will be awarded the university letter at an early meeting of the athletic council. Financially the year is understood to have been more successful than last year's. This is the second team to represent the Buff and Blue university in collegiate basketball.

The date of the election of next year's manager has not yet been fixed.

EXPERT SWIMMERS MAY GO UNDER BAN

NEW YORK, March 7.—Swimming races at the Sportsman's Show in Madison Square Garden are likely to attract an eruption in the Amateur Athletic Union.

The events are being held under the auspices of the Bath Beach Swimming Club and under the sanction of the union.

It would seem that the A. A. U. officials object to matches such as those between C. M. Daniels and H. J. Landers, and there is a possibility of Daniels, Goodwin, Truhenbach, and Handy being disqualified. In that event the A. A. U. would be loath to license the swimmers for the Olympic games.

RUBBER POP BOTTLES TO PROTECT LIMPS

SHARON, Pa., March 7.—A local genius and baseball fan is trying to float a company here for the manufacture of rubber pop bottles for the big league parks the coming summer. An attempt will be made to get a charter under the laws of New Jersey.

The projector asserts that a rubber bag or pop bottle can be manufactured for 3 cents to take the place of the glass pop bottles, and when the contents have been drunk the "bottle" will become limp.

CADETS AND Y. M. C. A. IN DECIDING GAME

The Young Men's Christian Association basketball team will meet the Corcoran Cadet quint, in the former's gymnasium on Tuesday evening in what promises to be an interesting and hard fought game.

If the association five is returned a winner, the victory will tie up the place for first honors in the Washington City League between these two teams and a post season series will be arranged. The Cadets are the holders of the title of champions of the league on this team.

Following is the probable line-up: Y. M. C. A. Position, Corcorans, May,.....L. C. Coleman Jones,.....R. C. Leach Haight,.....C. C. Clark Williams,.....B. B. Hunter Fowler,.....R. B. Casassa, Giovanni.

BLOOMINGDALE MEN IN GOOD CONDITION

The Bloomingdale athletes that will compete in the Georgetown Games tomorrow night are in nip-and-tuck form, according to the announcement of Manager Marley.

The Bloomingdale Club will be one of the few clubs to have two relay teams in the club race for the club championship, while the junior team will be pitted against the junior high school team. Captain White is entered in the mile handicap, and although just recovering from an injury, he will in all probability compete. Gardner and Edgar Orme, with F. Hennig, are entered in the 50-yard novice. Rousseau L. entered in the 60-yard novice. The members of the junior relay team who were injured in the Johns Hopkins games last Saturday will be able to run.

POOL MATCH ARRANGED.

ROCKVILLE, Md., March 7.—A pool contest has been arranged between a team representing the Montgomery Country Club of this place, and the Dumbarton Athletic Club, of Washington, which will be played at the club-house here the evening of March 12. Ralph Jones, James Veirs, Somerville Dawson, Edwin S. Hege, Dr. George E. Lewis, and Robert Welsh will compose the country club team.

W. & J. WILL MEET WEST POINT ELEVEN

WASHINGTON, Pa., March 7.—Dedicated announcement was made at Washington and Jefferson College athletic headquarters tonight that the W. and J. football team will not meet the Ann Arbor team next season, but will instead play the Army team at West Point. Manager Murphy, of W. and J., has wired the Western Point management that he would accept their offer of a game on November 14.

Results will be the first meeting of W. and J. and the West Pointers.

SMALL BIRDS PLAY HAVOC WITH TELEPHONE WIRES

VINELAND, N. J., March 7.—Though sparrows are small birds, they are large enough to put telephone wires out of business. For six months call lights on the lines here "went permanent" because of ground connection, and no cause could be found until Sam Williams figured out that sparrows had roosted on the fuses until they became loose and caused the trouble.

A woodpecker also bored five terminal boxes, and, after being shut out of four, made a nest in the fifth. The nest and the eggs were found in the terminal box, and the bird left town in disgust. Red squirrels now have a nest in one of the terminal boxes, and are rearing their young, but, as they disturb nothing, they are allowed to remain.

SONGS TO CURE ILLS OF CHICAGO BABIES

CHICAGO, March 7.—Mothers of Chicago babies will cut down the revenues of Chicago druggists by following the teachings of Mrs. M. B. Blonke, of the West End Mothers' Club, was declared before the Congress of Mothers today.

"Not only can the baby be eased of its colicky pains, but the maid can be taught to cook, to sew, to enter, and to father can be inveigled into a civil appreciation of his breakfast once in a while by music."

"If a baby cries, don't dose or punish him. It isn't colic that worries him. He is not in proper vibration with surrounding things. Sing him something cheerful. 'Good Morning, Mother,' 'Sunshine, How Did You Come So Soon?' is good. So also is the woodpecker verse, 'Tap, tap, tap.'"

Little Talks ON Big Subjects:

I. Have you ever stopped to realize that the most human part of a newspaper lies not in the editorials or in the great mass of current news happenings, but in the hundreds of little items which go to make up the great volume of the Classified, or Want, advertising? Each of these little items has its own story to tell, briefly, compactly, but a story of real, genuine human interest just the same. Perhaps some one has lost a prized possession, or has found one and wishes to return it to the anxious owner; or perhaps a house is wanted, or a servant, or an apartment, or work of some description. These little items appear under twoscore of different classifications, but each one is genuine, human, heart-compelling. And no part of a paper is of greater interest or more widely read than the Classified, or Want, Pages.
